

Oh, The Places A Sea Aggie will Go!

A Story Map Telling of the locations on campus a student from the Texas A&M Galveston Campus would like to visit on the main campus

Lauren Medlin
April 25, 2023

This story map provides Students from Texas A&M Galveston Campus with a interactive tour to the landmarks of the main campus at College Station. Just click the headers to the sidebar and the map will zoom into the designate landmark location.

Esri, NASA, NGA, USGS, FEMA | Esri Community Maps Contributors, Baylor University, City of Bryan GIS, Texas ... Powered by Esri

Texas A&M Campus at College Station

Overview of TAMU College Station

Texas A&M University was established 1876 as the state's first public institution of higher learning. Aggie Land is located in the heart of Texas, and 148 miles from the Galveston Island Campus. Many Sea Aggies have not made the long and Treacherous journey to the main campus. They sit at night wondering about the happenings of the main campus. Well wonder no more Sea Aggies! This story map will take you on a tour of the wonderous campus! Ready, set, Gig'em!

Kyle Field

Front of Kyle Field

The home of the Aggie football team since 1905. The stadium was named after the dean of agriculture and athletic council president, Edwin Jackson Kyle. Students show their team spirit and support by standing the entire game! This is to embody the core values held by the university.

Aggie Ring Statue

Aggie Ring Statue in Haynes Ring Plaza

This 12-foot-tall bronze statue is a replica of the Aggie Ring. Located The aggie ring represents TAMU's tradition of excellence, leadership, and loyalty, and integrity. Since 2009, the statue has been located in the Haynes Ring Plaza behind the Alumni Center. The seal at the top of the ring bears Harold J. "Bill" Haynes class year, 1946, and a time capsule inside to be opened 2046. A very picturesque location for a Aggie ring Gig'em!

Bonfire Memorial

Bonfire Memorial at TAMU College Station

Bonfire was one of the most passionately observed traditions on any college campus in the country. It contained thousands of logs carefully engineered and stacked over thousands of hours. For Aggies who participated in Bonfire, the meaning and power of the Aggie Spirit is understood. The Bonfire Memorial seeks to share that understanding with all visitors with respect, remembrance and spirit.

Military Walk

Military Walk

Military Walk, which is approximately 1,500 feet long, links the Sbisa Dining Hall area to the Rudder/Memorial Student Center complex in the heart of campus. It passes between several campus landmarks, including the Academic Building and the YMCA Building.

Rudder Auditorium & Theatre Complex

Front Entrance of Rudder Auditorium

Rudder Theatre Complex contains Rudder theatre, forum and auditorium. This is where MSC OPAS (which stands for Opera and Performance Arts Society) provides world-class performing arts to Brazos Valley audiences and the students of Texas A&M.

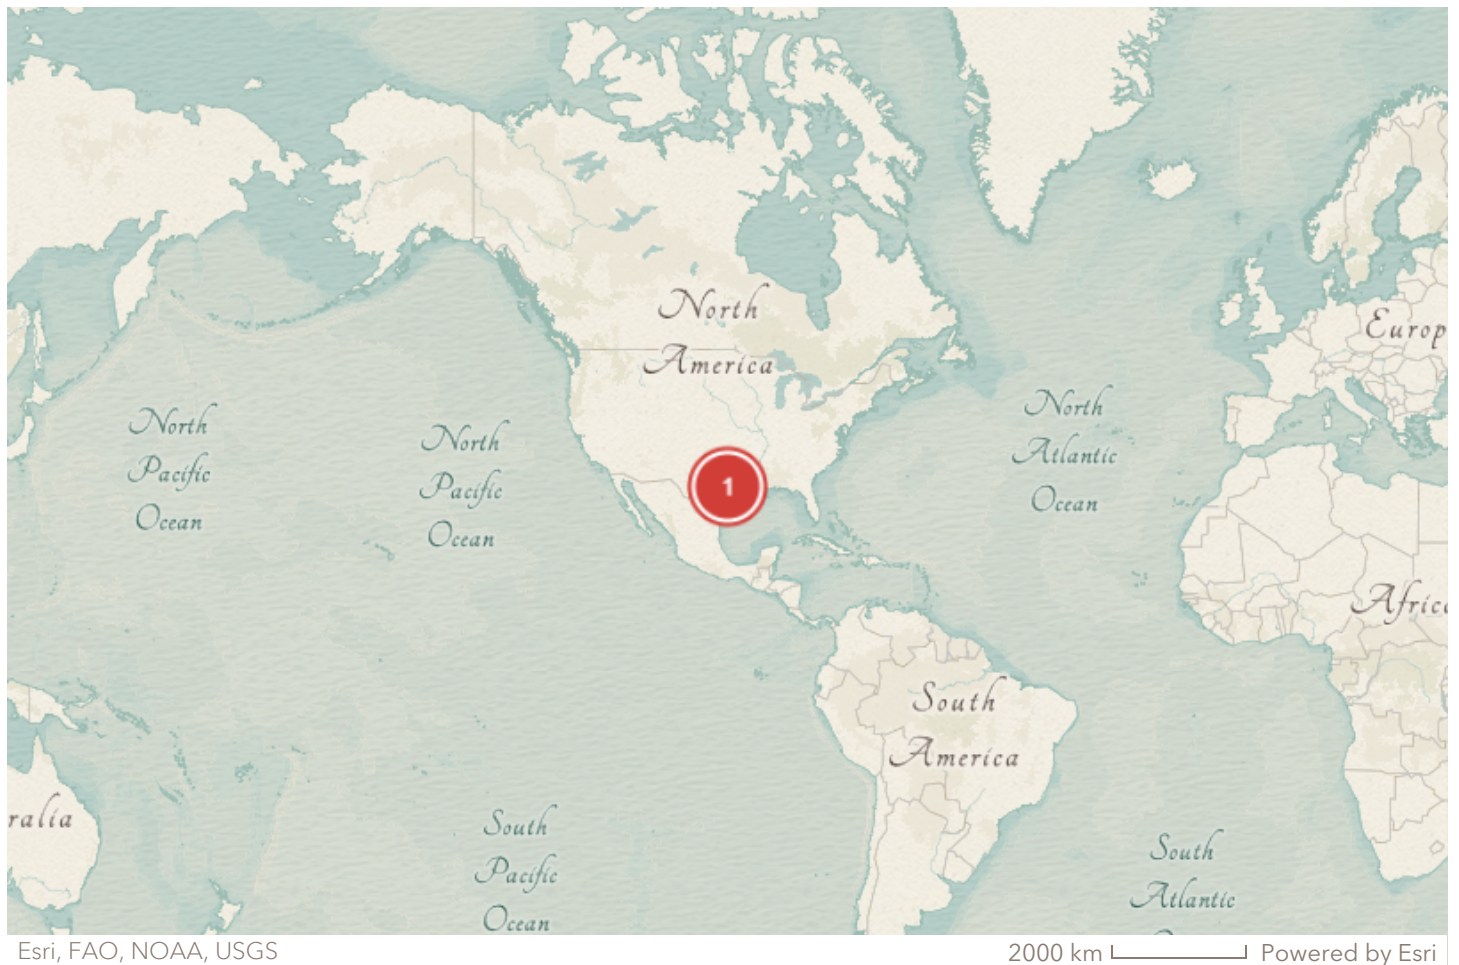

Finally the Sea Aggies must return home....

Texas A&M University at Galveston

The campus of Texas A&M University at Galveston is on Pelican Island in Galveston, Texas, surrounded by the environments and industries that we protect and serve. The waters of Galveston Bay are our shores, palm trees sway in the ocean breeze and birds perch among our protected marsh and wetlands. Students enjoy access to a private beach and fishing dock, watching the dolphins play as ships pass. Truly an island paradise for learning!

Overview of Texas A&M Galveston Campus

Esri, FAO, NOAA, USGS

2000 km Powered by Esri

1 Texas A&M University at College Station

Start of the Aggie Tour for this Story board. Located in College Station, Texas.

2

Texas A&M Galveston Campus

End of the Sea Aggie tour, the return home to the waterfront campus on Pelican Island. Located in Galveston Island, Texas.